JANUARY 2022

ASSISTED LIVING & MEMORY CARE COMMUNITIES

RESIDENT SPOTLIGHT

Judi Winn

Judi was born in Pasadena, CA and was raised there by her parents Clyde and Grace and her sister Sandra. She moved to Tucson when she was twelve years old.

Growing up, Judi loved camping and swimming. Judi enjoyed hosting parties with friends. Judi graduated from U of A with a degree in Liberal Arts. She began her career as a real estate broker and received her BA Degree from The University of Phoenix.

Judi was in a choir and the Senior Women's Hiking Club. She also delivered children books in Mexico. Judi still loves socializing. She has a great time at activities and get togethers with other residents.

EMPLOYEE SPOTLIGHT

Maribel Romero

Maribel was born and raised in Tucson with her two sisters Debbie and Jennifer. She attended and graduated from Sunnyside High School.

Maribel enjoys spending her free time dancing, from going out or Zumba. She loves to be outdoors hiking. Maribel is up for any adventure and is always open to new experiences.

Maribel started her career 17 years ago working with children with special needs. When her mother fell ill, she decided to give her mom the best care from herself. Maribel has now been a caregiver since. What Maribel loves most about her job, is that it's very rewarding. Thank you Maribel!

Chocolate Cake Campaign

January 26th

Please join us for National Chocolate Cake Day as we make a chocolatey donation to our doctors and nurses in our community with some chocolate cakes! They have endured so much as they have been a HUGE help to us, so let's show our support. Cakes can be dropped off in our main office.
