ASSISTED LIVING & MEMORY CARE COMMUNITIES

RESIDENT SPOTLIGHT

Bobby

Bobby was born in Oklahoma and moved to Arizona as a baby. Her father was a Deacon in the church and her mother a homemaker. She has one sister. Bobby's favorite memory growing up was spending time with her grandmother. She met her husband at a ballroom in 1950 and were married for 32 years with five children. Her favorite job was at the livestock sanitary board for twelve years. Her advice is to go to church and study the Bible. She is a great listener. What she likes most about living here is our staff and Shake, Rattle & Roll and exercising. She is very loved.

EMPLOYEE SPOTLIGHT

Louise

Louise has been a Caregiver with us for close to a year. He grew up in Los Angeles with four brothers and four sisters. Louise is a single dad with four children and grandchildren. His hobbies are boxing, hiking and rock climbing. His goal is to finish his Nursing degree and open an occupational therapy house for alcohol and drugs in Mexico. He enjoys sweets, especially coffee and works hard at eating healthy. He likes keeping our residents happy. Louise likes to stay positive and all things can be done. Thank you for the hard work and heart!
